

MARK DURAN

Prescott Pines Inn

IF SOMEONE TELLS YOU THEY ENJOY “SLEEPING AROUND” at Prescott Pines Inn, don’t misunderstand their meaning. The rooms of this bed and breakfast are each decorated differently — from contemporary to country, and everything in between — and Dana McCready, the inn’s general manager, says returning guests often try different rooms, or “sleep around,” to see which they like best. The inn’s main house was originally a farmstead for the Haymore Dairy. Arthur and Abby Haymore raised 14 children in it before it became a motel in 1952, then a bed and breakfast in 1987. Dawn Delaney and Lisa Carlson, the current owners, bought and restored the property in 2011. The inn, the largest bed and breakfast in Prescott, features 11 rooms in the three buildings surrounding the main house, plus a separate lodge for larger groups. All rooms feature DVD players and free wireless Internet access, and a stay includes a full breakfast in the dining room of the main house. “Sleeping around” is optional, but recommended.

— NOAH AUSTIN

Prescott Pines Inn is located at 901 White Spar Road in Prescott.
For more information, call 928-445-7270 or visit www.prescottpinesinn.com.

~
things to do in arizona
 ~

Folk Music Festival
October 5-6, Prescott

Now in its 35th year, this annual celebration of folk music is Arizona’s oldest folk gathering. See performances and attend workshops and jam sessions at Sharlot Hall Museum. Information: 928-445-3122 or www.sharlot.org

Helldorado Days
October 18-20, Tombstone

Tombstone’s oldest festival, which began in 1929 as a celebration of the town’s 50th anniversary, features street entertainment, a beard contest, live music and a Sunday parade. Information: 520-457-3451 or www.tombstonechamber.com

Rio de Cerveza Brew Fest
October 19, Yuma

Sample craft beers from around Arizona and the U.S., and enjoy live entertainment and local food vendors at this event at Desert Sun Stadium. Information: 928-376-0100 or www.visityuma.com

World Margarita Championship
October 25, Tucson

Taste world-class margaritas and tequilas, sample foods of the Southwest and more at this spirited competition at the Tucson Museum of Art. Information: 520-343-9985 or www.tucsonoriginals.com

Photo Workshop: Slot Canyons
November 4-8, Lake Powell

Photographer Richard Maack teaches participants how to use light and shadows to create dramatic images of the serpentine slot canyons and other photographic destinations near Lake Powell. Information: 888-790-7042 or www.ahpw.org AH